Medical.

Hoofland's German Bitters,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

Hoofland's German Bitters

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skilfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever;

PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM,

induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, etc.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Penna., writes:
Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, I can certify this from my experience of it.
Yours, with respect,

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates st.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL,

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours, truly,
E. D. FENDALL.

Tribute to the memory of Sadie O. Little, a former pupil of Gettysburg Union school, No. 2. The pupils of the school attended her funeral in a body and before the grave was closed each one cast in a bouquet of flowers.

Farewell, dear Sadie! we have met
Around thine open tomb,
Each with a votive off'ring sweet
To chase away its gloom—

Yes, we with fragrant flowers would deck
The dark, damp lowly bed
Of one, who in life's rosy morn
Was numbered with the dead.

The winds of Autumn fan our brows
As sadly here we stand;
Reminding us that Summer is fled,
And Winter nigh at hand:

When all the flowers that blossom now
Like thee shall fade and die,
And snow and leaden clouds enwrap,
The verdant earth and azure sky.

But then, in cadence low and sweet
We catch the sweet refrain—
"The frosts may nip but in the Spring
The flow'rs shall bloom again."

Yes, when the stormy blasts are o'er
The sun his radiance sheds,
From garden and from grassy nook
They peep their modest heads.

Then shall we not, our sister dear,
With them perfume thy grave?
For He who left bright heav'n on high
Rebellious man to save,

Hath told us that though in the grave
For years his Saints may lie;
The trump shall sound, and they will rise
To dwell in bliss on high.

The cruel frosts of death 'tis true
Have nipt the lovely rose
Once wont to bloom upon thy cheek,
Now pale as Alpine snows:

But, as the fragrant gems of earth
Die but to bloom again,
So shall thy body freed from death
In bliss eternal reign!

Adieu, dear Sadie then, adieu!
Nor can we cease to weep,
As with sad hearts we turn and leave
Thee to thy dreamless sleep.

In life, dear sister, thou wert loved,
Thy schoolmates knew thy worth,
Few, few, such gentle spirits as thine
Hath heav'n granted to earth!

DON'T DRIVE A WAGON.—A witness in court who had been cautioned to give a precise answer to every question, and not talk about what he might think the question meant, was interrogateed as follows:

"You drive a wagon?"

"No, sir, I do not."

"Why, man, did you not tell my learned friend so at this moment?"

"No, sir, I did not."

"Now, sir, I put it to you on your oath, do you not drive a wagon?"

"No, sir."

"What is your occupation, then?"

"I drive a horse, sir."

A RESIDENT in a certain village, having had sanded sugar sold to him, inserted in the local paper the following:—"Notice—I bought of a grocer in this village a quantity of sugar, from which I obtained one pound of sand. If the rascal who cheated me will send to my address seven pounds of good sugar, I will be satisfied; if not, I shall expose him." The following day nine seven-pound packages of sugar were left at his residence from as many different dealers, each supposing himself the one intended.

THE EAST

"Carleton" gives this description of the cost of Malay:

Nature has put a great block in the path of commerce here, as she has also at Suez and Panama. The Malay peninsula is a narrow tongue of land—only twelve miles wide at one place; but if it did not exist, or if there was a canal across it, vessels bound to or from China might save 1000 miles of their voyage. Off the coast lies numerous islands. This is the Enchanted land. You are never weary of gazing upon the hills and mountains which rise one after another—some so high that their summits are lost in the clouds—clothed in richest green from the wave-washed rock to the highest peak.

You look into ravines, behold distant vistas, varying every moment, revealing new beauties, which before you have time to admire them are succeeded by others equally enchanting. Thess are "spice islands" of poesy, of nutmeg, clove, pimenta, and cinnamon, fanned by balmy breezes, laved by gentle waves, reposing beneath skies ever beautiful—such islands as have enchanted us when sailing over the sea of reading in former years with Moore and Byron, and even with Shakspeare and sober John Milton.

But there is another side to the picture. The mercury to-day is 93 in the shade, the atmostphere steamy and sticky. Wipe yourself thoroughly dry with a towel, and in five minutes you need to repeat the process. Energy evapoates. You feel like doing nothing, but you would give anything for a cool place to do it in. The breeze, so balmy over the poetic page, is hot and penetrating, and you would give a big price if you could take off your flesh and sit on your bones.

If we were to go on shore we should find snakes, scorpions, centipedes, lizards, and all sorts of vermin in yonder spice groves. There are wood leeches which creep into your nostrils when asleep, and make themselves a comfortable home in your nose, living on the best blood of your brain; the deadly cobra comes into the house without invitation, and makes himself at home in your bed; spiders, with legs three inches long and bodies the size of a small teacup, spin webs over your windows or hang on the corners of your rooms. Swarms of flying ants come into the dining-room at dinner time and light upon your roast mutton; white ants bore out the table legs, the pillars of the house, carry off your best suits of clothes or your books in a single night; bugs, flies, fleas, beetles, cockroaches, lice—blue bugs, black bugs, yellow bugs, green bugs, little bugs and big bugs—creeping, flying, skipping, hopping, jumping, running—coming at morning, noon, and night—especially at night, when you are sweating, tossing, turning, and tumbling, and trying to get a wink of sleep. How nice to have a great spider straddle over your face, or to have cockroaches as large as mice run across the dinner table. If these seem to be exaggerations, go into the Museum of Natural History and see in the wonderful collection of insects there what sort of company the people of the tropics are compelled to put up with. The lands of spice are delightful as seen by the poet's eye. The natives undoubtedly think there are no climes so beautiful, and there are some Englishmen who profess to like these lands better than their own misty isle. It is well for the world that tastes differ.

BITES AND STINGS.—Bites and stings from mad dogs and ferocious insects, come into vogue about this season. It may not be out of place, therefore, to suggest a few of the simplest, safest, surest and promptest remedies. If the trouble is slight, such as comes from a mosquito bite, for instance, it will be enough to pour a drop or two of liquid ammonia, or phenic acid upon the spot.—This relieves the stings of wasps and bees as well. If it is a snake bite, it would be well to commence by applying a strong cupping glass. This plan has had eminent success, as it draws the poison along with the blood from the wound. Then a little ammonia is poured on the place to remove any traces of the venom that may have remained. When bitten at a distance from home, or any other place of assitance, the patient should instantly wash the wound with ammonia, or fresh water, and then bind the part firmly, just above the bite.—In that way he compresses the blood vessels, and prevents the poison from spreading. Seven or eight turns of the thread, or cord, should be made before tying it. If bitten by a mad dog, or by one even suspected of rabios, the cupping glass, or some substitute for it, must be instantly applied, and the wound must afterwards be cauterized. Be not too reliant upon the numerous boasted portions and lotions presented as cures for the bites of rabid animals, but instantly try red hot iron!—Maryland Farmer.

FAITH AND LIGHT.—A city correspondent recently attended a festival given to the children at the Howard Mission. The exercises were quite interesting, being interspersed with hymns sung by the little folks. There were magic views, &c., and appropriate remarks were made by the visitors. At the conclusion the juveniles were to be treated to cake, lemonade, and watermelons. An elderly gentleman, addressing the children, wishing to make clear to them what faith was, and to make his explanation more lucid, asked, "Boys, what nice things are we to have after the speaking and singing are over?" "Water-melons!" shouted the whole school. "Now, boys [impressively], how do you know you are to have water-melons?" Instead of answering, "Our teacher told us so," which was expected, and which would have enabled the gentleman to define to them the nature of faith, the boys roared out in the highest key, to the annoyance of the speaker and the convulsion of the audience: "see 'em in the cellar!" Amidst this cachination the speaker subsided, but being too old a hand to die easily, remarked, for a parting shot, that he thought "knowledge came from sight rather than faith."

A SAD STORY.—One of the sadest stories we ever read was that of a child in Switzerland—a pet boy, just as yours, reader—whom his mother, one bright morning, rigged out in a beautiful jacket, all shining with silk and buttons, gay as a mother's love could make it, and then permitted him to go out to play. He had scarcely stepped from the door of the swiss cottage, when an enormous eagle swooped him from the ground, and bore him to his nest, high among the mountains and yet within sight of the house of which he had been the joy. There he was killed and devoured, the eyrié being at a point which was literally inaccessible to man, so that no relief could be afforded.

In tearing the child to pieces, the eagle so placed the gay jacket in the nest that it became a fixture there, and whenever the wind blew it would flutter, and the sun would shine on its lovely trimmings and ornaments. For years it was visible from the lowlands, long after the eagle had abandoned her nest. What a sight it must have been for the parents of the victim.

A MOTHER'S INFLUENCE.

A MOTHER'S MANNERS MOULD THE CHILD.

There is no disputing this fact—it shines in the face of every little child. The coarse, brawling, scolding womam will have coarse, vicious, brawling, fighting children.

She who cries on every occasion, "I'll box your ears—I'll slap your jaws—I'll break your neck," is known as thoroughly through her children as if her unwomanly manners were openly displayed in the public streets.

These remarks were suggested by the conversation in a street car—that great institution for the students of men and manners—between a friend and a schoolmaster. Our teacher was caustic, mirthful and sharp. His wit flashed like the polished edge of a diamond, and kept the car in a roar.

The entire community of insiders—and whoever is intimate with one of these conveyances can form a pretty good idead of numbers, inclusive of the "one more" so well known to the fraternity—turned their heads, eyes and ears one way, and finally our teacher said—"I can always tell the mother by the boy. The urchin who draws back with doubled fist and lunges at his playmate, has a very questionable mother. She may feed him and cloath him, cram him with sweetmeets, coax him with promises, but if she gets mad she fights.

"She will pull him by the jacket; she will give him a knock in the back; she will drag him by the hair; she will call him all sorts of wicked names, while passion plays over her red face in lambent flames that curl and writhe out at the corners of her eyes.

"And we never see the courteous little fellow with smooth look and gentle manners—in whom delicacy does not detract from courage or manliness, but we say that boy's mother is a true lady. Her words and ways are soft, loving and quiet. If she reproves, her language is "my son"—not "you little wrech—you plague of my life—you torment—you scamp."

"She hovers before him as a pillar of light before the wandering Israelites, and her beams are reflected into his face. To him the word mother is synonomous with everything pure, sweet and beautiful. Is he an artist? In after life, that which with holy radiance, shines on his canvass will be the mother's face. Whoever flits across his path with sunny smiles and soft, low voice brings 'mother's images,' freshly to his hear. 'She is like my mother,' will be the highest meed of praise. Not even when the hair turns silver and the eye grows dim will the majesty of that life and presence desert him.

"But the ruffian mother—alas, that there are such—will form the ruffian character of the man. He in turn will become a merciless tyrant, with a tongue sharper than a two edged sword, and remembering the brawling and cuffing, seek some meek, gentle victim for the sacrifice, and make her his wife, with the condition that he shall be master. And master he is for a few sad years, when he wears a widower's weeds till he finds victem number two."

We wonder not that there are so many awkward ungainly men in society—they have all been trained by women who knew not nor cared for the holy nature of their trust. They had been made bitter to the heart's core, and that bitterness will find vent and lodgment somewhere. Strike the infant in anger, and he will, if he cannot reach you, vent his passion by beating the door, the chair, or any inanimate thing within reach. Strike him repeatedly, and by the time he wears shoes he will have become a bully, with hands that double for fight as naturally as if especial pains had been taken to teach him the art of boxing.

Mothers, remember that your manners mould the child. Who will not say that mothers ought to be thoroughly educated whether their sons are not?

THEM THAT HONOR ME, I WILL HONOR.

"That's right, my boy," said the merchant, smiling approvingly upon the bright face of his shop-boy. He brought him a dollar that lay among the dust and paper of the sweepings.

"That's right," he said again; "always be honest, it is the best policy."

"Should you say that?" asked the lad timidly.

"Should I say what? that honesty is the best of policy? Why, it's a time-honored old saying—I don't know about the elevating tendency of the thing—the spirit is rather narrow, I will allow."

"So grandmother taught me," replied the boy; "she said we must do right because God approved it without thinking what man would say."

The merchant turned abruptly toward the desk, and the thoughtful faced little lad resumed his duties.

In the course of the morning, a rich and influential citizen called at the store. While conversing, he said: "I have no children of my own, and I fear to adopt one. My experience is, that a boy of twelve (the age I should prefer), is fixed in his habits, and if bad—"

"Stop!" said the merchant, "do you see that lad yonder?"

"Yes, what of him?"

"He is remarkable—"

"Yes, yes—that's what everybody tells me who has a boy to dispose of—no doubt he'll do well enough before your face. I've tried a good many, and have been deceived more than once."

"I was going to say," remarked the merchant calmly, "that he is remarkable for his principle. Never have I known him to deviate from the right, sir—never. He would restore a pin—indeed (the merchant colored), he's a little too honest for my employ. He points out flaws in goods, and I cannot teach prudence in that respect—common prudence, you know, is—is common prudence—ahem!"

The stranger made no assent, and the merchant hurried on to say—

"He was a parish orphan taken by an old woman out of pity, when yet a babe. Poverty has been his lot; no doubt he has suffered from hunger and cold uncounted times; his hands have been frozen, so have his feet. Sir, that boy would have died rather than be dishonest. I can't account for it; upon my word I can't."

"Have you any claim upon him?"

"Not the least in the world, except what common benevolence offers. Indeed, the boy is entirely too good for me."

"Then I'll adopt him; and if I have found one really honest boy, I'll thank God."

The little fellow rode home in a carriage, and was ushered into a luxurious home; and he who sat shivering in a cold corner listening to the words of a poor old pious creature, who had been taught of the spirit, became one of the best and greatest divines that England ever produced.

"Them that honor me, I will honor."

THE shortest and best way to make your fortune is to convince people it is their interest to serve you.

COUNT ZINZINDORF AND THE DOVE.

Cruelty to animals is always a sign of a mean and little mind, whereas we invariably find great men distinguished by their humanity.

I remember having read, some time ago, a beautiful story of Count Zinzendorf, when a boy. He was, as I dare say you know, a great German noble, and lived to do a great deal of good in the world.

One day, when he was playing with his hoop near the banks of a deep river, which flowed outside the walls of a castle where he lived, he spied a dove struggling in the water. By some means the poor little creature had fallen into the river, and was unable to escape. The little Count immediately rolled a large washing tub, which had been left near, to the water's edge, jumped into it, and though generally timid on the water, by the aid of a stick he managed to steer himself across the river, to the place where the little dove lay floating and struggling. With the bird in his arms, he guided the tub back, and got safely to land.—After warming his captive tenderly in his bosom, the boy ran with it into the woods, and set it free. His mother, who had watched the whole transaction, in trembling anxiety for his safety, from her bedroom window, now came out.

"But were you not afraid?" she asked.

"Yes, I was rather," answered the little boy; "but I could not bear that it should die so, you know, mother; its little ones might have been watching for it to come!"—Plea for the Dumb Creation.

LIVING WITHOUT SLEEP.—Five young men in Berlin lately made an agreement for a wager, to see which of them could keep awake for a whole week. They all held out for about five days and a half, by drinking largely of strong coffee, and keeping up a constant round of active exercises and exciting amusements. At the end of that time two of them yielded to drowsiness. A third soon after fell asleep while riding, tumbled from his saddle and broke his arm. A fourth was attacked by severe sickness and compelled to retire from the lists. The fifth held out to the end, but lost twenty pounds of flesh in winning the wager.—Long ago, Frederick the Great and Voltaire made a similar experiment, making use of the same stimulant of strong coffee, but they did not succeed in driving away sleep for more than four days. "Tired nature" obstinately refuses to accept any substitute for her "sweet restorer."

A GOOD joke is told of a young man who attended a social circle a few evenings since. The conversation turned on California, and getting rich. Tom ——— remarked that, if he was in California, he would, instead of working in the mines, waylay some rich man who had a bag full of gold, knock out his brains, gather up the gold and skedaddle. One of the young ladies quietly replied that he had better gather up the brains as he evidently stood more in need of that article than gold. Tom subsided.

DOCTORS IN PARADISE.—A physician told a lady if women were admitted to Paradise their tongues would make a hell it.

"If some doctors practised there," she said, "they would soon make it a desert!"

THE Republicans of the Borough were very liberal towards their Copperhead neighbors on Saturday last, and very generously loaned them their U. S. flags to be used in decorating their dwellings. This course was in fine contrast with the indecent conduct of the Copperhead drum corps in trying, for twenty minutes or more, to prevent Gen. HAWLEY from being heard, when addressing the Republicans on Wednesday. Had the Republicans manifested the same malicious spirit, there would not have been ten U. S. flags flying on Saturday last, for Copperheads don't generally invest in that line.

The large flag borne in the Littlestown delegation is the property of a Republican and was borrowed for the occasion. The flag belonging to the Star and Sentinel office did similar service for a Gettysburg Copperhead.

We would not allude to these facts, but for the shameful conduct of the Copperhead drum corps, which was witnessed by the leading men of that party, and which they did nothing whatever to stop.

A few days afterwards, they had the face to ask Republicans to contribute to the eclat of their meeting, by loaning their flags! This was done, and in no grudging spirit. We think the Copperheads have reason to blush for their conduct on that occasion, and trust they will hereafter try to do as they would be done by!

THE gigantic frauds practiced by the Democratic party during the recent elections have aroused public attention to the necessity of some legislation to prevent them in future. A stringent Registry law in Pennsylvania will partly cure the evil, and we look to the next Legislature to give us one. The Supreme Court is now Republican and will approve any fair law.

The New York Post proposes to remedy fraudulent naturalizations by suggesting that Congress enact that a foreigner shall be entitled to naturalization in four instead of, as now, five years; but that a naturalization paper shall not entitle the person to vote at any election until a year after its issue. Under such a rule the time of trial would not be lengthened; the foreigner would become entitled to vote just as soon as now; but by a merely mechanical device—by obliging him to apply for and receive his papers of citizenship a year beforehand, fraud would be largely prevented.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF REBEL HATE.

The Snyder county Tribune says that Mr. Leas, who was formerly the principal of the New Berlin Seminary, was recently murdered at an election in the South. A letter received by his brother, Henry, residing at Fremont, states that he was the Union candidate for the legislature, and that he was stabbed in the abdomen by a rebel, and died almost instantly. All who knew Mr. Leas will be shocked at this report.—He was a most amiable man, talented, and of spotless character, the last man in the world to provoke an attack. If true, his death was but the result of the system kept alive by the hope of Seymour's election; and, should such a calamity occur, every northern man in the South will be compelled to leave the South or be murdered in cold blood.

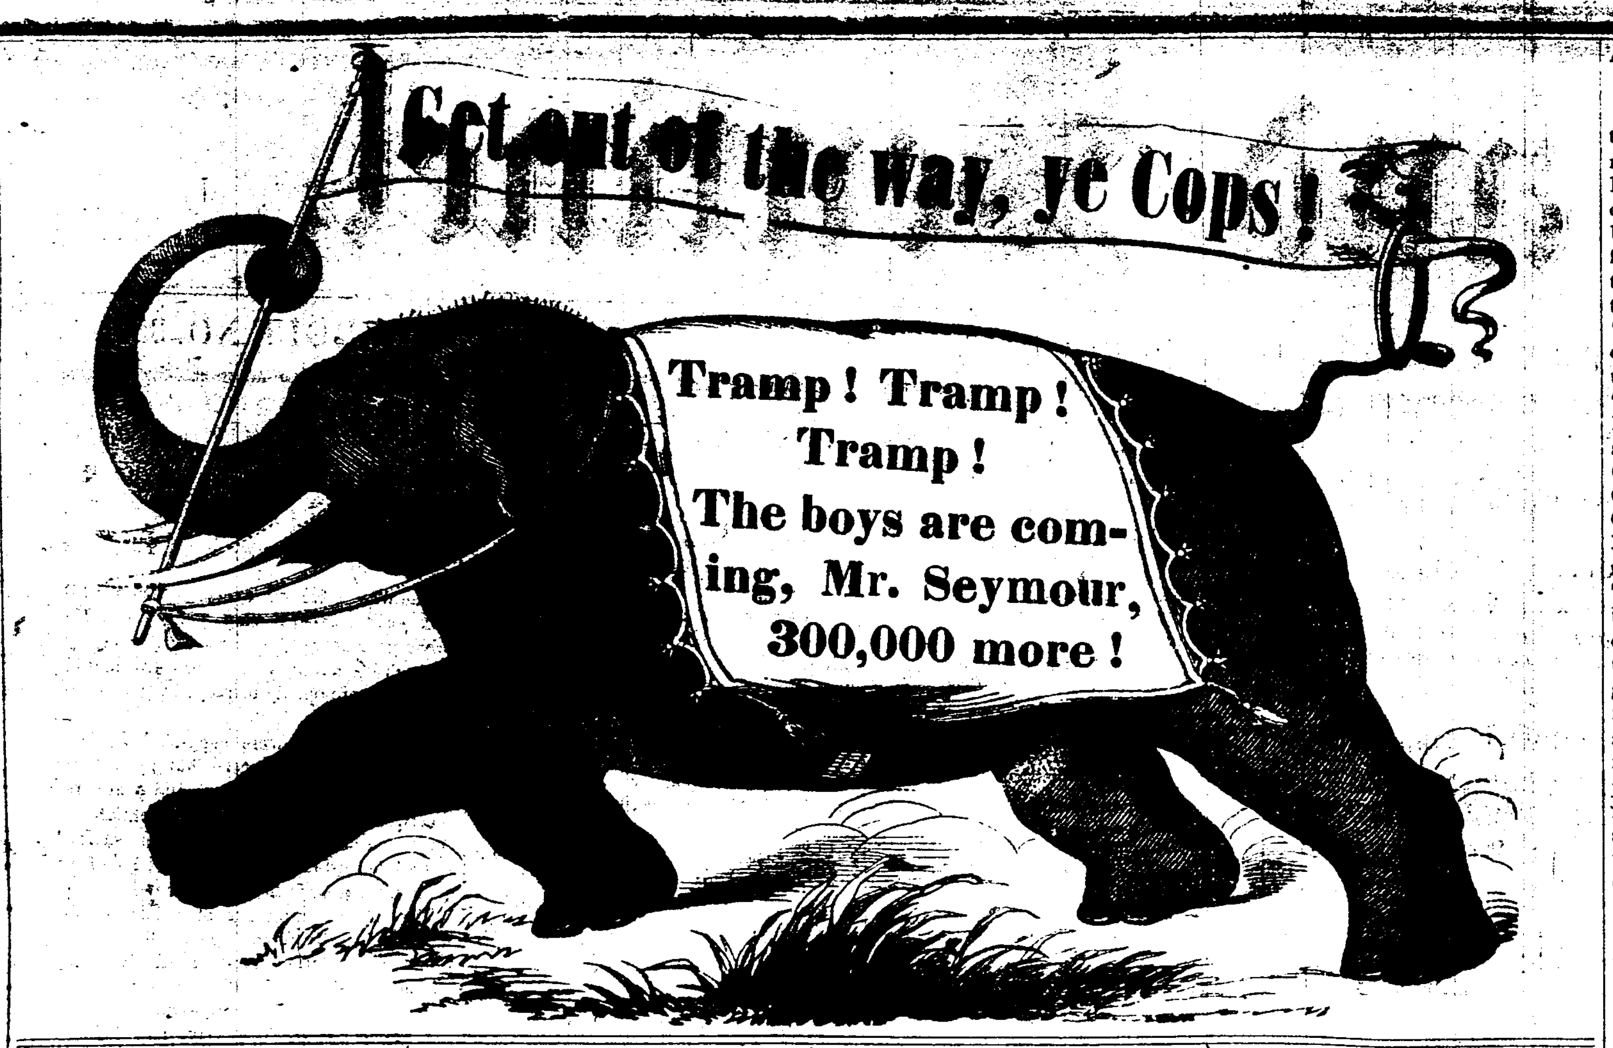
THE Copperheads hauled a cannon in their procession. During the War, they had great aversion to Union cannon, and generally kept clear of all guns!

Had the Republicans pretentiously paraded with one, it would have been denounced as an emblem of tyranny. We suppose this Copperhead cannon was intended to typify the means SEYMOUR and BLAIR intended to use in overthrowing the loyal governments which exist in the reconstructed States.

WHEN James Buchanan became President, he found the national debt but $30,000,000. When he left the Presidential chair, it was $90,000,000. The debt increased during his administration, in a time of profound peace, $60,000,000, or $15,000,000 per year!—And this is a good illustration of Democratic economy!

THE Copperheads having seen "the elephant" on Tuesday last, we have concluded to let our readers have a sight of him to-day. He moves with heavy tread, and means to clear the track for Grant and Colfax [illegible].

OUR "Coons" insist on uniting in the general jubilations over the defeat of Copperheadism, and make their appearance this morning with "that same old tune."



Get out of the way, ye Cops!
Tramp! Tramp! Tramp! The boys are coming, Mr. Seymour, 300,000 more!

WE'VE GOT THEM!

NOW LET HER RIP!

GLORIOUS VICTORIES!

PENNSYLVANIA, OHIO, INDIANA & NEBRASKA, O. K.

REPUBLICAN TRIUMPHS EVERYWHERE!

THUNDERING ALL AROUND THE SKY!

"WE'RE COMING, FATHER ABRAHAM!"

"THE DAY OF JUBILEE HAS COME!"

INDIANA AND OHIO THE ABUTMENTS!

VALLANDIGHAM AGAIN BANISHED!

GRANT AND COLFAX ENDORSED!

DAN. VORHEES IN DANGER!

VICTORY IN NOVEMBER ASSURED!

"LET LOYALTY GOVERN WHAT LOYALTY HAS PRESERVED."

"PROCLAIM LIBERTY THROUGHOUT ALL THE LAND AND TO THE INHABITANTS THEREOF."

In the world to-day no prouder name
  Is borne on any breeze,
And with Grant to steer the ship of State
  Our flag shall rule the seas;
No "Dominion" shall be North of us,
  And South of us no foe—
Our Stars and Stripes in the Canadas,
  And likewise Mexico!
    For with President Ulysses
    Will be few who care to fight—
    May he rule the country he has saved,
    And God defend the right!

So, boys! a final bumper,
  While we all in chorus chant—
"For next President we nominate
  Our own Ulysses Grant!"
And if asked what State he hails from,
  This our sole reply shall be—
"From near Appomattox Court House,
  With its famous apple tree!"
    For 'twas there to our Ulysses
    That Lee gave up the fight—
    Now, boys, "To Grant for President,
    And God defend the right!"

THE GREAT VICTORY!

The judgment rendered by the nation four years ago on the banks of the Appomattox, and deliberately opened by the Democratic party, has been re-affirmed. On Tuesday last, after months of severe and desperate conflict, the old lines closed for a decisive struggle, and thank God the shadows of destiny have fallen as they did on the fields of the rebellion!

PENNSYLVANIA sent three hundred and sixty-six thousand of her sons to the field. To-day in thunder tones she re-affirms her devotion to the Union, and lays her electoral vote at the feet of the great soldier who led her veterans to Victory. Philadelphia was overborne by the gigantic frauds so long in preparation, but the balance of the State comes up nobly to the work.—The Republican majority in the State is over 10,000—ensuring her vote to Grant by at least double those figures.

We have an increased Republican majority in the Legislature, which secures a U. States Senator in place of Buckalew.

The Congressional delegation will stand the same as before, except the 3d and 5th districts, Myers being beaten in the former by about 100, and Taylor in the latter by about 200. Both are Philadelphia districts and will be contested by reason of fraud. Aside from these the Republicans have elected O'Neil, Kelly, Townsend, Dickey, Cake, Mercur, Packer, Cessna, Morrell, Armstrong, Schofield, Gilfillan, Covode, Negley, Phelps, and Donley; the Democrats Randall, Stiles, Getz, Van Auken, Woodward, and Haldeman.

The contest in Pennsylvania was terrific, and the vote the heaviest ever polled. The glorious old Keystone send greeting to the Republicans of the Union, and presents as the fruits of the victory a State Republican in all its departments, Executive, Judicial, Legislative and Congressional.

OHIO wipes out the stain of last year, and goes Republican by 15,000, with a Republican Legislature, and 13 out of the 19 Congressmen. Vallandigham is beaten handsomely by Schenck.

INDIANA was endagered by heavy Rebel colonization from Kentucky in the lower counties, but the last telegrams give Gov. Baker (Republican) about 2,000 majority, with both branches of the Legislature Republican—securing another U. S. Senator in place of Hendrix. The Congressional delegations stands 7 Republicans, 3 Democrats, and Voorhees' district in doubt.

NEBRASKA joins the the victorious column, the Republicans sweeping the State and securing the legislature, with 2,000 majority on the popular vote.

THE COUNTY.

We have delayed our paper to-day for the official returns, which will be found in another column. The Democracy elect their entire ticket by majorities ranging from 74 to 365.—They made a frantic, desperate contest, and did their best under assurances of carrying the State. They cannot make the same fight in November. Grant will then be in the field and lead his triumphant columns to victory. Our Republican friends in Menallen, Straban, Mountpleasant, Reading and Butler deserve much credit for the gallant fight made by them on Tuesday. In other districts our friends did well, as the tables show, and deserve credit. The heavy Copperhead majorities in Union, Hamilton, and other border townships, show the effect of colonization.

CESSNA ELECTED.

The following are the reported majorities in the 16th Congressional district:

	Cessna.	Kimmell.
Adams		344
Franklin		225
Fulton		325
Bedford		350
Somerset	1330

Although Franklin gives from 50 to 100 Republican majority, the treachery of the Wiestling faction in Chambersburg and Quincy ran Kimmell some 300 ahead. CESSNA, however, is safe

A telegraph despatch from Bedford makes Cessna's majority in the district between 80 and 100.

FRANKLIN county gives from 50 to 100 Republican majority and elects the Republican county ticket, except Hays for District Attorney, who is beaten by Stenger.

Allegheny county gives 9100 Republican majority, Bradford 3800, Chester 2150, Crawford 1850, Erie 3195, Delaware 1300, Indiana 2500, Lancaster 6800, Lawrence 2000, Lebanon 1500, Somerset 1350, Tioga 3427, Susquehana 1400.

Berks gives 6500 Copperhead, Bedford 400, Clarion 1000, Clearfield 1150, Cumberland 620, Columbia 1800, Fayette 900, Fulton 330, Green 1530, Juniata 350, Lehigh 1500, Luzerne 3500, Monroe 2100, Montgomery 1000, Northampton 3240, Philadelphia 900, Schuylkill 1500, Westmoreland 1300, York 3100.

The Democrats in Philadelphia elect their Mayor and other city officers by majorities ranging from 900 to 2500.—The Republicans claim that not less than 10,000 fraudulent votes were cast, and some of the offices will be contested.

PENNSYLVANIA, Ohio and Indiana have given the death-blow to the new Rebellion. We now look for the disbandment of the entire rebel army—alike its Northern and its Southern wings. The American people have declared by magnificent acclaim that the surrender of Lee to Grant was not a farce but a stern reality, to be respected throughout all our domains.

GEN. TOM MCKAIG of Cumberland, Md., in his recent speech in Bedford a few nights ago, said that Gen. Hunter had asserted that he Gen. Hunter would "hang McKaig in ten minutes." "Not wishing to have a rope to my neck," said McKaig, "I fled to Bedford where my friends kindly protected me." Who were the rebels?

A FEW GEMS OF THE "NATIONAL" DEMOCRACY.

We glean from our exchanges a few specimens of Southern rebel opinion in relation to the recent butcheries in the South:

The Columbus (Ga.) Sun hopes "that at the next collision, sure and speedy vengeance may seek and find the white leaders rather than their ignorant and deluded dupes."

The Charleston Mercury hopes that if another such affair occurs, it may be able to "chronicle that every white man has been slain."

The Southern (Va.) Opinion declares that the problem "will have to be decided by arms, if not decided at the polls in November by the election of Seymour and Blair." It adds:

"Ballots are cheaper than blood, and elections better than battles. But if Grant be chosen, and we do not misjudge him and his policy, then the disciplined cohorts of the South must be marshaled once more, and the issue will be, shall white or black men rule in the South? When that issue comes to the last argument, reposed in the musket muzzle and the bayonet's point, where will the poor negro be?"

THE Republicans gain two members of the Legislature in Franklin and Perry; one in Huntingdon, Mifflin, and Juniata; one in Indiana and Westmoreland; three in Lycoming, Union, and Snyder; and one in Philadelphia. The House will stand: sixty-two Republicans to thirty-eight Democrats, and the Senate will have one Republican majority certainly, and probably three.

Grand Torch-light Parade!

LET US HAVE PEACE.

Let us rejoice over the Grand Victories!

PENNSYLVANIA, OHIO AND INDIANA O. K.

LET EVERY MAN BE GLAD.

Push on the Column to Final and Overwhelming Victory!

There will be a grand TORCH LIGHT PARADE of the "Boys in Blue" of Adams county, and of the friends of GRANT AND COLFAX generally

IN GETTYSBURG,

ON FRIDAY EVENING, 23rd OF OCTOBER, in honor of the magnificent results achieved in PENNSYLVANIA, OHIO, INDIANA AND NEBRASKA.

☞Good speaking may be expected. Turn out in full force, and make the demonstration worthy of the great victories which have saved the Nation, and rendered certain the triumph of the Republican Principles and the Republican Candidates. Let the welkin ring with the glad shouts of victory, and prepare to seal these results with a crowning triumph in November. By order of the Republican.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY NEAR BOSTON.—George L. Richardson, a respectable merchant at Brookline, Mass., who had become insane from sunstroke, killed one of his children on the 10th instant, and nearly killed another. A despatch dated the 10th inst., says:

For some time he manifested symptoms of mental derangement. Last evening he retired early, and at about 1 o'clock this morning his wife awoke and found him very nervous. In a few moments he got up from his bed, took a razor from his dressing-case, and going into an adjoining room, where his two sons, Henry and George, were sleeping, he instantly cut the throat of Henry from ear to ear, producing almost immediate death, and then attempted in the same manner to kill his second son. The wounds inflicted upon the neck and throat of the latter are very deep and ugly, and it is possible he may not survive. Mrs. Richardson, hearing the cry of the youngest, ran to the room and pulled her husband back. A moment of reason came, and he exclaimed, "Great God, what have I done!" and immediately left the house, clad only in his night shirt, and shortly after jumped into a milldam near by. He extricated himself from the water immediately and proceeded in his almost nude state in the direction of Boston. He was found in his own barn, under the hay, and taken to the insane asylum in Somerville. When found he was laboring under great mental depression, and although unaware of the deed he had perpetrated, was impressed with a sense of having committed some great crime. Mr. Richardson has a wife and four children.—The lad who is dead was a youth of about 14 years of age. Mr. Richardson's love and care for his children was something more than fatherly. He was their friend and confident, participating in all their plans and enjoying with them the pleasures of a a very happy home. He was himself a man of very religious character, being, at the time of the above occurrence, a deacon in the Orthodox Church at Brooklin. Continued ill health, acting upon a nature naturally sensitive, created mental derangement, which is the only explanation given of this truly sad affair.

THE great battle has been fought and the force of the enemy is broken. The Five Forks struggle is over, and the Appomattox surrender only remains for november.

HARRISBURG, the capital of our State, has just elected for the first time a Republican mayor.

HORACE Greeley has been nominated in New York for Congress from the fifth congressional district.

THE election of Grant and Colfax is now universally taken for granted.

GOLD fell nearly two dollars on the news of the late Republican victories.

AN ILLUSTRATED RAILROAD DOCUMENT.

Railroad reports are usually dry compilations of figures, which, to the general reader, are devoid of attraction or interest. But an exception must be made in the case of the new pamphlet just issued by the Union Pacific Railroad Company, whose forty pages are full of matter not only interesting in itself, but presented in attractive form. The book is made up of an "Introduction," showing the organization of the Company, followed by chapters under the titles "Progress of the Work," "Character of the Work," "Agricultural Resources," "Mineral Wealth," "Branch and Connecting Roads," "Resources for Construction," "Future Business of the Company," "Its Saving and Profit to the Government," "The Way Business—Actual Earnings," and "The Union Pacific Railroad Company's First Mortage Bonds."—These titles indicate the varied contents of the book, which, we venture to say, give a clearer idea of the extent and capacity of the Great West than a majority of our geographies succeed in doing. An accurate map accompanies the work, while the artist's aid has been called in to make perfect what is in every way so excellent, and we have appropriate headings and vignettes for the chapters, with a title-page extremely artistic and suggestive. The printing of the book is perfect, and, altogether, it is equally appropriate for the parlor table or the counting-room desk.

The road is now completed for 850 miles, and will reach the vicinity of Great Salt Lake before winter, and by July of 1869 the entire line to the Pacific will be in active operation. Careful estimates show what an immense future business must be done by the finished road, while one of the most important chapters proves, from official returns, what a national profit is already accruing by the operation of the road, the government freight for 1867 having cost almost two million dollars less by the railroad than it would have done by wagons. The chapter upon the character and value of the Company's First Mortgage Bonds prove them to be profitable and safe, the public confidence in them as an investment having been already attested by the sale of twenty millions during the past eighteen months. It is not unlikely that before long, what remain unsold of these Bonds will be so disposed of among capitalists as to withdraw them entirely from market, except at largely enchanced prices.

Copies of the new pamphlet may be obtained free by mail from the Company's general office in New York, or of any its advertised agents.

EX-SECRETARY STANTON closed his Steubenville speech thus:

You all remember that bright Sunday morning, when the nation quaked at the news, as it flashed through the land that a new monster of the deep had appeared the day before, had sunk two of our ships and was about to ravage our coasts; and, when four hours later, the word rang through land that a little Monitor, which appeared no bigger than a speck upon the sea, had fought her three hours, and had driven her, crippled and shattered, to her port—where is the man who, for the whole national debt created by our whole naval expenditure, would have lost for a minute his share in the glory of the achievement? [Cheers.] And when, on another Sunday, the world beheld that great duel on the deep, in the face of Europe, when Winslow and the Kearsarge sent, by a single shot, the rebel pirate to the bottom of the sea, who would sell out his interest in the glory of that achievement or dock its discount? And yet these are things on which the financiers of the New York Convention are busy, with pencil and slate in their hands, to cipher away. [Laughter.] But they have quite other things in their minds when they profess to be figuring and reckoning discounts and interests. Their hearts are mindful of something else. They are thinking of Meade and Gettysburg, and its glorious fields of the rebel [illegible] by our artillery like grass before the scythe in that two days' battle. They are thinking of Sherman hewing his way from the mountains to the sea. [Applause.] They are thinking of George H. Thomas dashing their army to pieces at Nashville. [Applause.] They are thinking of the bloody fight of Schofield at Franklin, when the cannon balls crashed through the bones of the rebel soldiers and their officers like hail as thick as Lannes heard at Montebello. [Applause] They are thinking of Butler's triumphant entry into New Orleans [applause and hisses] and patriotic administration. They are thinking of the humbling of the keen of the rebellion before the stars and stripes. They are thinking of Canby and the capture of Mobile. But above all are they thinking of that day when Lee surrendered his sword and his army to Grant, and when the voice of a great nation was lifted up in thanksgiving and praise to the Lord of Hosts. [A voice: "Glory to His name."] Against these things the financiers of the New York convention may cipher in vain, until the very figures shall burn and blister their eyeballs. [Applause.] You, fellow citizens, will be mindful of these things. You will lay them to your hearts when you come to make your choice for President of the United States, and for your representatives in Congress. You will talk of them in your family by your firesides, and you will press them upon your neighbors. You will toil with them until the day of the polls, and the election of Grant and Colfax and a Republican Congress will be a crowning blessing to you and your posterity forever. [Applause.]

IMBRIE, of Pennsylvania, Capt. McMAHON, of N. York, and JAMES H. WILSON, of Washington, D. C. All three of these gentlemen were in the Union army. Capt. McMahon is an eloquent Irishman, and lost a limb in the battle of Gettysburg. Mr. Wilson is a native of Adams county, and favorably known to the public as a Washington correspondent. Let there be a large turn out.

MENALLEN AT WORK.—An active, working "Grant and Colfax Club" has been formed in Bendersville with the following officers;

President—Wm. B. Wilson.
Vice President—Abel T. Wright.
Recording Secretary—Wm W. Blocher.
Corresponding Secretary—Geo. W. Wilson.
Treasurer—Jonas Raunsahn.

PREMIUMS AWARDED.—Adams county was well represented at the Chambersburg Agricultural Fair.

Dr. T. T. TATE's horse "Cashier" took the first premium ($15) for the ... the REILY horse, of this place.

Miss ANNIE SMITH took the Silver Cup for the best Lady Equestrian, having ridden "Cashier," on test.

FIRE AT EAST BERLIN.—On last Saturday night a fire broke out in the large store building in East Berlin, Adams county, occupied by Mr. Wm. S. Hildebrand, merchant. The entire building with its contents, consisting of a large assortment of dry goods and groceries, was burned to the ground. The building belonged to the Rev. Mr. Deininger, and was insured in the "Home of New Haven" for $2,300. Mr. Hildebrand had insurances on his stock to the amount of $7,000 as follows: In the Hope of York Pa., $3,000. In the Maryland, $2,000. In the Home, New York, $3,000.—York True Democrat.

Pesident—Martin Early, of Palmyra, Pa.

...which had been heralded with so much pomp, and which our neighbor of the Compiler declared would be "one of the most imposing demonstrations ever witnessed in this region," proved a miserable failure. A long list of marshals had been appointed to receive and marshal into line the various delegations, who were on hand at an early hour, while "Penelope" ever and anon thundered out the summons to the faithful to get ready. The faithful had been invited to "come in carsin wagons, carriages, buggies, on horseback, afoot—any way and every way," and to bring with them "flags, banners, hickories, wreaths, everything that might contribute to the grand display." But they didn't come! Whether because the call wasn't loud enough, or because the faithful had become disgusted with the news from Vermont and Maine, we have not learned. A few wagons, freighted with men, women and children, and an occasional "hickory," were all the response that could be heard or seen. For awhile anxious eyes peared out Chambersburg street to get the first glimpse of "the delegation of mounted men, wearing sashes, and each bearing aloft a handsome streamer with the name of a State upon it," which was to come from Chambersburg, accompanied by "a capital brass band," and which was to have a "very fine effect." But both delegation and band cruelly failed to come to time, and the disappointed leaders swore terribly, while the faithful who came in good faith to see the promised show scattered through town in utter disgust.

At 2 o'clock, the meeting was called to order in front of the Court-house, numbering probably as many voters as attended the Republican meeting on the preceding Wednesday, and was successively addressed by PILLSBURY, defeated candidate for Governor of Maine, ELI P. NORTON of New York, and G. W. BREWER of Chambersburg. These gentlemen devoted themselves to the usual routine of Democratic argumentation, "the nigger," "Republican Extravagance," "Debt," "Taxation," &c. By the time they got through, the crowd had thinned off—some in search of bad whisky, and others in search of home—whereupon it was determined to abandon the outdoor night meeting, and go into the Court-house.

The "grand torchlight procession" turned out to be some 30 voters and about an equal number of boys carrying Chinese lanterns, who paraded the streets to call out the faithful again to the Court-house, when the same gentlemen held forth for several hours in further elucidation of the profound subjects discussed during the day. About 9 o'clock, we stepped in the Court-house and found Mr. PILLSBURY in the midst of a profound dissertation on the quantity of knives, paper and general stationery, &c., that should constitute the legitimate allowance of members of Congress, addressed to an evidently wearied, sleepy audience who about half filled the Court-house. The whole thing was chilling, and seemed to be a premonition of disaster that awaited the Copperheads on Tuesday.

NOW IS THE TIME.—Housekeepers can economize by laying in their winter coal at once, as freights are now lower than they will be a month hence, and Coal will necessarily rise. Persons desiring to save money, will do well to call at once on Col. C. H. BUEHLER, who is prepared to furnish all kinds of Stove, Blacksmith and Lime-burner's Coal at lowest market prices. tf

AT WORK.—The friends of the contemplated Branch Railroad from Emmittsburg, are vigorously pressing the movement.—The following persons were yesterday selected to manage the matter:—Rev. Francis Burland, of St. Joseph's, Rev. John McCloskey, of St. Mary's, Daniel G. Adelsberger, Joshua Motter, and John Biggs—all energetic, influential men.

☞A celebrated New York barber said, not long since, that nine-tenths of his customers preferred to have their hair dressed with "Barrett's Hair Restorative" to any other substance, as it keeps the scalp so cool and free from dandruff.—Troy Daily Whig. 1t

THE MORNING GLORY.—Col. C. H BUEHLER has received a large assortment of these famous base-burning Stoves, which on the score of economy, cleanliness, easy management, and general utility stand unrivalled and defy competition. The great demand for them last season taxed the capacity of the Manufacturers to meet the demand. They are much improved and will doubtless ere long take the place of all other stoves for parlor, office store and shop. Call and look at them, at the Wareroom on corner of Carlisle and Railroad street, opposite the depot.

Also, on hand a full assortment of the best varieties of COOKING STOVES, including the Spear, Noble Cook, Waverly, Oriental, Washing, Barley Sheaf, Prince Royal, Royal Cook, Excelsior, &c. &c., all WARRANTED to be good bakers. If not satisfactory, they can be returned and the money refunded. Also, a large assortment of Hollow Ware and Tin Ware, Doty's Washing Machine and Universal Wringer. Call and examine. tf

Sold by all Druggists. 1t

NOW'S THE TIME.—R. C. COBEAN is now selling his Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes, at greatly reduced prices, in order to make room for his Fall and Winter stock. THE butchery of negroes at Opelousas turns out, by the admission of the Rebels themselves, to have been even more gross and inexcusable than our first accounts indicated. An editor, it seems, had spoken of a display of Rebel spirit at political meeting. By way of showing that there was no Rebel spirit, they cowhided him. The negroes gathered to protect him, and he, trusting to the laws for protection, asked them to disperse. The Rebels then took possession of the town, sent around their patrols, disarmed the negroes, and thenceforward had things all their own way. The Rebel account says "it is estimated that over one hundred negroes were killed, and about fifty wounded." And it is added, quite naturally, that the peace-loving and orderly whites, whom these riotous negroes are keeping in constant terror of their lives, lost, "four wounded and none killed."

THE President has issued a proclamation appointing Thursday, the 26th day of November, as a day of National Thanksgiving and of prayer and praise to the Almighty. ONE OF THE BEST INVESTMENTS.

THE

First Mortgage BONDS

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY.

850 Miles Completed.

A limited amount of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Union Pacific Railroad Company are offered to the public, as one of the safest and most profitable investments.

1. They are a first mortgage upon the longest and most important railroad in the country.

2. By law they can be issued to the Company only as the road is completed, so that they always represent a real value.

3. Their amount is limited by act of Congress to Fifty Million Dollars on the entire Pacific line, or an average of less than $30,000 per mile.

4. Hon. E. D. Morgan, of the United States Senate, and Hon. Oakes Ames, of the United States House of Representatives, are the trustees for the bondholders, to see that all their interests are protected.

5. Five Government Directors, appointed by the President of the United States, are responsible to the country for the management of its affairs.

6. Three United States Commissioners must certify that the road is well built and equipped, and in all respects a first-class railway, before any bonds can be issued upon it.

7. The United States Government lends the Company its own bonds to the same amount that the company issues, for which it takes a second mortgage as security.

8. As additional aid, it makes an absolute donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, lying upon each side of the road.

9. The bonds pay six per cent. in gold, and the principal is also payable in gold.

10. The earnings from the local or way business were over FOUR MILLION DOLLARS last year, which, after paying operating expenses, was much more than sufficient to pay the interest. These earnings will be vastly increased on the completion of the entire line in 1869.

12. No political action can reduce the rate of interest. It must remain for thirty years—six per cent. per annum in gold, now equal to between eight and nine per cent. in currency. The principal is then payable in gold. If a bond, with such guarantees, were issued by the Government, its market price would not be less than from 20 to 25 per cent. premium. As these bonds are issued under Government authority and supervision, upon what is very largely a Government work, they must ultimately approach Government prices. No other corporate bonds are made so secure.

13. The issue will soon be exhausted. The sales have sometimes been half a million a day, and nearly twenty millions have already been sold. About ten millions more may be offered. It is not improbable that at some time not far distant, all the remainder of the bonds the Company can issue will be taken by some combination of capitalists and withdrawn from the market, except at a large advance. The long time, the high gold interest, and the perfect security, must make these bonds very valuable for export.

All the predictions which the officers of this Company have made in relation to the progress and business success of their enterprise, or the value and advance in the price of their securities, have been more than confirmed, and they therefore suggest that parties who desire to invest in their bonds will find it to their advantage to do so at once.

The price for the present is 102 and secured interest at the rate of six per cent. in currency from July 1st, and subscriptions will be received in Gettysburg, at

...CHERRY PECTORAL

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Billious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR

FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

The Great Desideratum of the Age.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

LETTER FROM A WAR DEMOCRAT.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—As you are aware, I was always identified with the Democratic party till 1861, when, pledging itself to the interests of the rebellion, it adopted treason and its brood of disorganizing principles.—Then, like thousands of other "War Democrats," I felt constrained to act with the Republicans. Like them, I still hoped the party would accept the lessons of progress forced on it by the war, and refuse to admit again the dominion of the slave aristocracy. I little thought to live to see the day when the name of Democrat should stand synonymous with that of rebel, or the platform of the Democratic party should commit it hopelessly to repudiation, treason and war.

While the majority of Democrats held definite principles, and consistent action upon them was respected in individuals; while some idea of moral duty was regarded by the leaders; while instances of inflexible integrity illustrated the career of Democratic officials, and the party press was capable of dignified discussion and the honest enunciation of sound doctrines of government, it was possible for one to rejoice in the name of Democrat.

The time has now come, however, when one who feels the necessity of a sound public sentiment upon all questions of political economy and social reform, should examine the animus, bearing and tendencies of the two parties, in order to decide through which a well-meaning citizen may hope to accomplish something for the public good. Having given them such scrutiny on my own part, I am prepared to submit the considerations that have led me to choose to work henceforth with and in the Republican party, convinced that this path alone is open to one who would cherish liberty, integrity and honest principle.

I have not accepted the Republican party with blind partisan zeal. Old prejudices have kept alive the disposition to give its deficiencies full as much weight as they justly merit. My study of its present condition, however, has confirmed the opinion from which no man who understands the details of politics will dissent that earnest struggles for reform, within the Republican party, never fail of reaching a satisfactory measure of success. Sometimes they may be worn out and discouraged by fraud and violence, but rarely can even those achieve defeat.

On the other side, I have sought to ascertain what kind of political reform may be hoped from restoring the Democrats to power.

First—I find a debased currency and the business of the country in utter confusion. What remedy do the Democrats propose?—They would continue this debasement and thus hopelessly ruin all business interests.

Second—Our national debt rests a heavy burden on the country. But, instead of presenting feasible means of paying off the obligation, the Democratic party coolly purposes to evade it altogether, thus devoting itself to the commission of a gigantic national swindle. What indeed have political economy and social reform to expect from a party thus absorbed in visions of rubbery, thorough the repudiation of our public debt?

Third—We meet corruption, with unblushing effrontery grasping at all public affairs, demanding the indignant rejection of every party organization. It is sad to confess that an honest Democratic official is unknown, plunder having become the watchword and aim of the entire party! The annual abstractions of Democratic officials from the public pocket, in New York city alone, have been variously estimated, from millions, upwards.

Fourth—The good to be done by the party depends in a great measure on the class of material of which it is composed. In this respect, the history of the Democratic party shows a steady decline for many years, till now a man of character cannot associate himself with its disreputable mob. Its numbers have been drawn from the lowest class of our foreign population, and the coarser, more brutal class of Americans. Through ignorance and evil dispositions unable to understand what makes the public weal, and trained to no comprehension of moral law or moral influences, this miserable element controls the party by its co-operation with the most corrupt leaders. It is beyond controversy that in the Democratic ranks are and always will be found the more demoralized, brutal and ignorant elements of society, blindly led by those who pander to the worst vices and lowest desires to which human nature can descend.

Fifth—The Democratic party presents no unsparing opponents of its flagrant abuses, no stickler for reform and decency either in composition or measures. No Democrat stands up in Congress the earnest defender of national honor, the foe of corruption, the defender of political virtue. Examine the record; scarcely one even votes against, and none lifts up his voice to oppose the most atrocious schemes of public fraud.

Sixth—One of the most pitiable evidences of the degredation of the Democratic party, warning every man who would maintain his self-respect not to defile himself with its vileness, is the condition to which its press is reduced. To those who are familiar with the spirit of these journals, no words are necessary in denunication of the vile vocabulary of slang and vice thus introduced into the families of the community. The false and specious reasoning, the want of sound practical sense and intelligence, and absolute lack of all broad, elevating views of men and morals, render them disgusting to people of intelligence, and dangerous to the ignorant. They are not fit to be read by our women and children, nor do they in any respect represent the intelligence and moral character of our people. The Republican press is on the other hand elevated in tone and intelligence, in every sense the educator of the people in broad, progressive ideas, in purity of principles and moral sentiments.

Seventh—On the subjects of essential political importance, finance, revenue, general and political economy, little enough has been developed by either party, but the amount accomplished, and such correct ideas as have been achieved, are the work of the Republican party alone.

If in some of the particulars cited, the Republican record may be supposed not to be without stain, I find myself humbled to the acknowledgment that the history of the modern Democracy renders that of Republicanism triumphantly respectable, by contrast.

I am convinced that by reason of the material of its composition, and its present avowed principles, reform on the part of the Democratic party, at any time, is hopeless. Not the slightest attempt at purification is to be anticipated from it. On the contrary, there are vigorous political and social elements in the Republican party that must develop in progress and reform.

Abhorrence of Democratic morality would, of itself, keep pure-minded men out of the ranks of the party henceforth, even could they not admire the Republican policy. It is to be considered that every abuse now demanding reform, every condition in our public affairs that requires political remedy, is the result of a state of things engendered by the war which was instigated and continued by Democrats in sympathy with rebellion. Democracy gave us the war with its consequent evils, and from Democracy no help can be hoped in overcoming those evils. All the efforts in the right direction of the other party, are hampered or defeated by renewed sympathy with treason and rebellion. When the Democratic party cravenly submits to the leadership of the rebels, and pledges itself to Wade Hampton and his "lost cause," all other considerations are as nothing in view of the magnitude of its shamefulness.

"War Democrats" were "Union men" in war, and when rebels dig up the hatchet in behalf of the old slave aristocracy, we will don again the colors of the "Boys in blue," and follow the same victorious leader.

J. H. SHIREMAN'S

REAPERS & MOWERS.

HAVING been agent for this machine last season, I also offer it to the farmer this season. It is well known, having taken the premium at the Bendersville Fair, also at the Gettysburg Mowing Match over seven others, which were considered splendid machines, and likewise at the Dillsburg Mowing Match. Having concluded not to offer any machine that will not give entire satisfaction, I have refused agencies of several other machines, and now offer this one as

THE GREAT MACHINE OF THE SEASON.

Having tried one myself, I know exactly what it will do. I could refer you to scores of farmers who have purchased machines of me, who are highly pleased and say this is the only machine they would use.

Extras always on hand, and repairing done here at my place. This is a great consideration—the machine can be repaired at home immediately, and with much less cost.

Another great saving is the BINDER which is attached to this celebrated Reaper and Mower. It has been thoroughly tried, and given entire satisfaction—requiring no harvest hand except a driver. This Binder can also be attached to the Reapers which have been sold; but cannot be attached to any other machine except Shireman's.

I will here refer you to a few farmers, in different localities, who have bought and used these machines with others, too numerous to mention.

This machine has a self-rake, side delivery, and is warranted to do its work as above recommended.

Also on hand, SHIREMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, a first-rate article, which we will sell at the lowest possible price. Warranted to give satisfaction. Also the COLUMBIA RAKE always on hand.

Machines can be seen at my house, three miles south of Gettysburg, or at Mr. Conrad Snyder's Battlefield Hotel.

HON. A. K. McCLURE, Philadelphia, Solicitor.

The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Anson Burlingame) conceded to the Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following ports, viz:

	Population.
Canton	1,000,000
Macoa	60 000
Hong-Kong	250,000
Swatow	200,000
Amoy	250,000
Foo-Chow	1,250,000
Wan Chu	300,000
Ningpo	400,000
Hang Chean	1,200,000
Shanghai	1,000,000
Total	5,910,000

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, beside which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this Company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Government, of business, and of social life, especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrates make her population Four Hundred and Fourteen Millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence.—If the telegraph we propose, connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter.

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree remunerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of a vast national importance commercially, politically, and evangelically.

☞The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this Company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly installments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1868, on application to

THE GREAT CHOLERA PREVENTATIVE.

I.

X. 1866. L.

THE GREAT

Zingari Bitters.

THIS WONDERFUL REMEDY was discovered and introduced about twenty years ago by Dr. S. Cheopsus, an eminent Egyptian physician.

He had long seen and felt the want of some remedy which would strike at the root of disease, and so prevent much of the suffering which the human family was then compelled to endure.

This great question was presented to his mind every day in vivid colors as he moved among the sick and dying, and observed the inefficiency of nearly all the remedies then in use. Thus he was led to think and experiment; and after seven years' study and labor, he presented to his fellow-man the wonderful Zingari Bitters. The effect of this preparation in the prevention and cure of disease, was so marvellous and astonishing, that the most flattering marks of royal favor were bestowed upon him who discovered it.—His name was placed upon the Roll of Nobles, and a gold medal with the following inscription—Dr. S. Cheopsus, the Public Benefactor—was presented to him by the Viceroy.

The preparation has been used in several epidemics of cholera, both as a preventive and curative measure, and with such great success, that it has been introduced into nearly all the general hospitals of the old world.

The old saying that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, applies with marvellous force to cholera, and therefore any remedy that will protect us against this terrible disease should be freely and persistently used.

All pathologists now agree that the cholera poison acts on the system through the blood, and that any combination which acts on the excretory organs, and keeps them in working order, must prevent a sufficient accumulation of the poison to exert its terrible effects on the organism. This is true not only of cholera, but of nearly all other maladies, especially the different forms of fever.

The Zingari Bitters is just such a remedy as the above conditions require. It acts on the organs of excretion and secretion, keeping up a perfect balance between them. This Bitters is composed entirely of roots and herbs, so nicely concocted that every organ is acted upon and put in tone. Its taste is pleasant and its effects prompt and lasting.

Numerous cases of the following diseases have been cured by it: Cholera, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Scrofula, Typhoid and Typhus Fever, Fever, Ague, Nervous Debility, Anaemia, Female Irregularities, Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Colic, &c.

Price One Dollar per quart Bottle.
